

Welcome to worship at First Presbyterian Church

March 27, 2020

For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we are all baptized into one body-Jews or Greeks, slaves or free-and we were all made to drink of one Spirit. - 1 Corinthians 12:12-13

Dear Beloved Community,

It's now week #3 of discovering new ways to worship together and care for one another without being in the same building. Each week has brought new challenges and new learning opportunities. This week, in light of the Governor's and health department's updated counsel, our worship team will be as scattered as our congregation. We will gather from our homes. Please find time to express your thanks to the remarkable team who are innovating together week after week! (Their names are in the attached bulletin.)

WORSHIP WILL BE AT 9:30 AM THIS SUNDAY. PLEASE PLAN ON THIS FOR THE DURATION OF THIS SEASON OF "EXILE" FROM THE BUILDING.

This week, we have been able to prepare a bulletin to guide your worship at home. It is appended for you to print as you wish. Please note that this is a 2-page document, and the words to the hymns are on the second page.

We continue to worship via Zoom (instructions below) and Facebook Live. If you are unable to join us at 9:30 on Sunday mornings, you can find a video of the service on www.facebook.com/fpcbozeman. You do not need to be a Facebook user to access these videos.

In addition, scripture readings and sermons are available on the church's website in audio format, www.fpcbozeman.org.

Here are the instructions for participating in worship via Zoom at 9:30 am this Sunday, March 29. The information is the same as the last two weeks.

Morning Has Broken

Morning has broken like the first morning; blackbird has spoken like the first bird.
Praise for the singing! Praise for the morning! Praise for them, springing fresh from the Word!

Sweet the rain's new fall sunlit from heaven, like the first dewfall on the first grass.
Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden, sprung in completeness where God's feet pass.

Mine is the sunlight! Mine is the morning, born of the one light Eden saw play!
Praise with elation; praise every morning, God's re-creation of the new day!

TEXT: Eleanor Farjeon, 1931, alt.

Now Thank We All Our God

Now thank we all our God with heart and hands and voices, who wondrous things hath done, in whom this world rejoices;
who, from our mothers' arms, hath blessed us on our way
with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us,
with ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us;
and keep us in God's grace, and guide us when perplexed,
and free us from all ill in this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God, who reigns in highest heaven,
to Father and to Son and Spirit now be given:
the one eternal God, whom heaven and earth adore,
the God who was, and is, and shall be evermore.

TEXT: Martin Rinkart, c. 1636; trans. Catherine Winkworth, 1858, alt.
