

Welcome to November 22 Sunday Worship at First Presbyterian Church

"I give you thanks, O Lord, with my whole heart." (Psalm 138:1)

Dear Beloved Ones,

Gratitude is one of the most precious of all gifts. So this time of year which is set aside to give thanks is an opportunity for spiritual reflection and growth. Even in 2020 we all can be grateful. Even in 2020 we all have reason to give thanks. God is good, all the time!

You may wish to join in Thanksgiving fellowship this week, from 2 – 3 pm on Thursday. If you are alone this year, you are invited. If you have a small family gathering, you are invited. If you are with others, and want to offer friendship to those who are not with others, you are invited. The Zoom access is included in this week's Faith Formation and Fellowship page, appended to this document.

Our worship on Sunday will begin at 9:30 am. A bulletin for the service is attached, and access links for educational offerings are on a second attachment.

There are several options for joining the worship service. You may participate by Zoom, or if you have a smart TV which is connected to the internet, you can add the free Boxcast app on either Apple TV or Roku and then navigate to "Bozeman First Presbyterian Church." Come, Ye Thankful People, Come Come, ye thankful people, come; raise the song of harvest home.

All is safely gathered in, ere the winter storms begin.
God, our Maker, doth provide for our wants to be supplied.
Come to God's own temple, come; raise the song of harvest home.

All the world is God's own field, fruit in thankful praise to yield,
Wheat and tares together sown, unto joy or sorrow grown.
First the blade, and then the ear, then the full corn shall appear.
Lord of harvest, grant that we wholesome grain and pure may be.

For the Lord our God shall come, and shall take the harvest home;
From each field shall in that day all offenses purge away;
Give the angels charge at last in the fire the tares to cast,
But the fruitful ears to store in God's garner evermore.

Even so, Lord, quickly come to thy final harvest home.
Gather thou thy people in, free from sorrow, free from sin,
There forever purified, in thy presence to abide:
Come, with all thine angels, come; raise the glorious harvest home.

TEXT: Henry Alford, 1844, alt.

Now Thank We All Our God

Now thank we all our God with heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done, in whom this world rejoices;
Who from our mothers' arms, hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us;
And keep us in God's grace, and guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all ills in this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God, who reigns in highest heaven,
To Father and to Son and Spirit now be given:
The one Eternal God, whom heaven and earth adore,
The God who was, and is, and shall be evermore.

TEXT: Martin Rinkart, c. 1636; trans. Catherine Winkworth, 1858, alt.
